DCCT is part of the Girls' Football in School Partnership network which works towards providing girls with equal opportunities to play football. Our end of year survey found that 83% of Derby primary schools offer equal opportunities for girls to play football in PE and 80% offer at least a half term of girls' football extra-curricular clubs.

This year we have launched our This Girl Can pilot project, which is a Female Football leadership project delivered in schools as part of PE lessons. We worked with Bishop Lonsdale C of E Primary School and Pear Tree Junior School with 16 young leaders. The students then ran football lessons for other students in their class and will continue to act as ambassadors for girls' football next year.

The Shooting Stars programme continued to be popular with schools, the Disney inspired football lessons encourage young people to play football by using pupils' favourite stories such as Lion King, Toy Story and Frozen. We trained 26 new teachers to deliver the Shooting Stars lessons this year, and delivered six Shooting Stars Festivals with 812 students participating throughout the year.

We have ran more girls' football events than ever, with 16 girls' only festivals and competitions this academic year. This includes the Women's Euros Festivals which celebrated the competition being hosted in England this summer. 124 students attended the festival on 1st July at Moorways, taking part in a range of fun games to develop their football skills. PREMIER LEAGUE PRIMARY STARS

Premier League Primary Stars has delivered across 50 schools in the Derby and Derbyshire area during the last academic year. Supported by the Premier League Charitable Fund, the programme uses the appeal of the Premier League to engage with participants in a range of subjects through interventions such as Reading Stars, Matchday Maths and Resilient Rammie. In addition, we have also supported nationwide campaigns such as Rainbow Laces Day, Anti-Bullying Week and World Maths Day, whilst also partnering with The Woodland Trust to teach participants about the importance of social action and climate change through Black, White and Green.

We also invited enhanced schools to take part in Pride Park Poetry during the summer term. Schools were invited to a poetry workshop at the stadium, engaging with different types of poetry and learning about the DCFC poem We Are Derby. Participants were then given an opportunity to write their own poem or even football chant before performing them in different areas of the stadium, including the home dressing rooms, the dugouts and the stands, as part of their tour.
